

The white line is where I propose to put the east wall of the garage. The white circle near the guy-wire shows where that puts the west bottom of the garage door. I will need to drive in at an angle.

The white line above shows where I propose to put the east wall of the garage. It is farther from Frenette than the house.