Since our humble beginnings in 2006, Wounded Warriors Canada has grown to become one of the leading military support organizations in Canada. From one small program providing care packages to our injured military members in the NATO Hospital in Germany, we have grown to include 15 separate innovative and pioneering programs aimed at supporting our nations heroes and their families overcome the challenges associated with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder or PTSD.

With the war in Afghanistan over, it is often easy to forget that over 45,000 Canadians served during the war in that desert. Prior to this conflict, thousands more served in countries like Rwanda, Cambodia, Cyprus, Haiti and Bosnia. From these conflict zones, many of our soldiers, sailors and airmen have been injured both physically and mentally. Not all injuries are visible – many have mental scars related to their service and these people often face enormous challenges when transitioning back home to Canada.

Wounded Warriors Canada recognized the gap in the support of those suffering from mental health injuries and it has become our mission to make sure no veteran, first responder or their families goes without support. Since its inception in September 2006, it has become the beneficiary of the nation's empathy towards Canadian soldiers and new in 2016, our nations local heroes – our First Responders. The outpouring of support from individual Canadians and Canadian businesses has been overwhelming. Wounded Warriors Canada is a success story borne out of a horrible tragedy that continues to support those in need.

Today, we continue our legacy of care and compassion as the nation's leading, wholly independent, Veteran's charity focusing on mental health. Our innovative and wide-ranging direct programming, which exceeded $1,500,000 in 2015, is changing the lives of Veterans, First Responders and their families. This is only made possible as a result of the compassionate trust and support of individual Canadians and Canadian businesses, enabling us to carry forward our guiding ethos: Honour the Fallen, Help the Living.
