The Statement of Revenue and Expenses has been prepared by management based on the basis of accounting described in the significant accounting policy attached to the Statement of Revenue and Expenses.

Management's Responsibility for the Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation of the Statement of Revenue and Expenses in accordance with the basis of accounting described in the significant accounting policy attached to the Statement, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial information that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Statement of Revenue and Expenses based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement is free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the Statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Statement.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial information in the Statement of Revenue and Expenses for the Town of Fort Frances - Child Care Department for the year ended December 31, 2014, is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the basis of accounting described in the significant accounting policy attached to the Statement of Revenue and Expenses.
