

Manager's Report Tuesday January 11th, 2022

Well, here we go again, another lock down! The last two weeks in December went well, participation, as usual, dropped off because of Christmas but we still had our regulars for coffee, exercise and snooker.

Here's hoping things get better this year. I want to wish you all a Happy New Year and thank you for your support.