Social Media

1. No Report at this time..

8. New Business

1. Lisa Slomke explained the “Code of Conduct to the board. We must now maintain a code which may be between board and almost anyone as we are representing the Business Improvement Area for the members on Scott Street.
2. Lisa explained the BIA Governance: Our by-law is very old. There definitely needs work to be done to bring it up to current standards. One of the main issues is our quorum. We are awaiting permission from government to either amend or rescind our current By-Laws. If they are rescinded, we will then draft new keeping with the current government regulations governing Board of Improvements province wide.
3. OPP are making their presence known on Scott Street. They are on the right track to help control our shoplifting problem. Doug attended meeting with OPP and various community members to strategize how to correct problem. Everyone who attended and was at our board meeting agreed that it was a very informative meeting.
