Dear Mayor Avis & Council:

RE: NCIR Project ~ Rainy River District Personal Services Business Sector Analysis

The RRFDC is in the process of an application submitted to NCIR (Northern Communities Investment Readiness) for the Rainy River District Personal Services Business Sector Analysis project.

This project will review the personal services (ancillary health and aging) business sector within the Rainy River District with the intent of determining the types and size of businesses within the sector, gaps in services, develop an inventory of opportunities for business development within the sector. The project will also entail a regional (Kenora, Dryden, Sioux Narrows, Atikokan and Thunder Bay) environmental scan of the sector to help with gaps and opportunity developments.

With this application, we are to submit letters of support from our Municipal partners and we are requesting that you send us a letter of support or a Council resolution for this project, by either email or fax to the RRFDC at info@rrfdc.on.ca or 807.274.6989 as soon as possible.

Sincerely:

Geoff Gillon/RRFDC
