Strategic Planning Workbook

December 2, 2019

1.0 Goals

Thank you for providing your input into the Town of Fort Frances Strategic Plan. We greatly appreciate our key community partners taking the time to fill out the workbook, and help us define our strategic direction, and key objectives.

To help facilitate discussion on December 2nd, we have provided a list of questions for you to review. These questions are designed to get you thinking about what you prioritize, and how this plan can best help best position the organization and the community as a whole.

If you have a chance, please review the questions, and feel free to mark down your preliminary ideas. If you aren't able to attend the session on December 2nd, please send us your input by filling out this workbook, we will consider you feedback in the development of our plan.

At all times, feel free to identify items from your organization that you feel effect the community, as well as nearby communities, and for which the Corporation of the Town of Fort Frances has at least at some level, a mandate for.

Question 1:

Please review the previous strategic plan from 2015 which has been attached to this package.

Take a look at the objectives in the plan and determine which you feel remain relevant, and which are no longer relevant either because the work has been completed, or the item is no longer a significant concern.

From your perspective, what are the top 5 objectives from the last plan that remain an ongoing concern, and identify why it is important to you.

1) Objective:

2) Objective:

3) Objective:

4) Objective:

5) Objective:

Question 2:

The plan will develop both short term and long term objectives to move towards realizing what will be outlined in the Mission, Vision, Values, which will be developed by Council and Senior Administration.

Objectives are an expression in measurable terms of what an organization intends to achieve.

Objectives can be hard or soft.

- Hard goals must be action oriented and specific (e.g. an increase in revenue by 10% from one year to the next in our recreation programming).
- Soft goals establish targets for the social conduct of the organization (e.g. improving relationships with neighbouring communities).

From your perspective, list your top 5 priorities for the current term of council.

Question 3:

- a) What changes do you feel are the most significant?

- b) What does the Town of Fort Frances, as an organization, do well?

- c) What does the Town of Fort Frances need to improve on as an organization?

- f) What new developments threaten the Town of Fort Frances as it relates to service delivery, staffing, and ongoing sustainability?

- g) What new developments threaten the quality of life in the Town of Fort Frances?

Question 4: SWOT Analysis

A SWOT (Strength, Weakness, Opportunity, Threat) Analysis, is an efficient means of reviewing both the internal and external environment for an organization. Make a list of the following (feel free to include issues from your organization that effect the community as a whole):

Strengths	Weaknesses

Opportunities	Threats

SLEPT Analysis

A SLEPT (Socio-Cultural, Legal, Environmental, Political, Technological) analysis is another means of conducting an environmental scan that can help us focus our thoughts regarding the environment in which we operate. It is similar to a PEST analysis but considers legal factors which are critical for a municipality. From your perspective, make a list of the following (feel free to include issues from your organization that effect the community as a whole):

Socio-Cultural Factors
Factors related to the population and market served by the Corporation of the Town of Fort Frances. Can be broad social factors such as an aging population, or local trends.
Listing of Socio-Cultural Factors:

Legal Factors

Include things that are regulatory in nature. Could also include local factors, and ongoing legal matters that may materially impact the ability of the Corporation to operate as planned.

Listing of Legal Factors:

Environmental Factors

Factors related to the physical environment for example risks created by severe weather events, or climate change.

List of Environmental Factors:

Political Factors

Political factors differ from legal factors, but may be closely related. A good example of a political factor may be changes to the amount of funding provided by the Provincial government for a given program.

Technological Factors

Includes both internal and external factors. Cybersecurity, connectivity, internal infrastructure, trends with use of automation, and Artificial Intelligence are some examples.

Message from Mayor Roy Avis

In my message that prefaced the last strategic plan, I noted that as a community we were “facing an era of change that will undoubtedly prove to be a significant milestone in the long and rich history of Fort Frances.” At this time, we are deep in the throes of that change with a path ahead of us that is lined with opportunities that we must be prepared to seize.

Over the last few years, the Town and its stakeholders undertook an important branding exercise whereby we defined our community as ‘Boundless’. The adoption of this new brand is a powerful means for pursuing a strategic direction for the community. In light of the downturn in the forestry sector over the past number of years, it was important that we looked beyond our traditional definition of a “mill town”.

We are looking forward to the road ahead. Mining activity in the western end of the district is beginning to have a marked impact on our local economy. We will continue to support any potential restart of the local papermill and work together with area First Nations and municipalities for an equitable and effective management of the Cross-route Forest.

We present to you ‘Incredible Community – Boundless Opportunity’. Mayor, Council and Administration cannot do this alone. We have utilized the resources of all our committees and solicited public input. We plan on utilizing all our stakeholders in the consideration and implementation of many of the strategic initiatives within this plan. I encourage everyone in our community to participate in your local government by exercising your right to provide feedback to Mayor, Council and Administration.

I want to acknowledge the efforts and passion of all citizens, politicians and staff who worked on this important project. Lets make this a successful initiative. Remember, we are ‘Boundless’ and our potential has no limits!

Sincerely,

Roy Avis
Mayor

Message from Chief Administrative Officer Mark McCaig

I believe strategic planning is one of the more important initiatives a municipality undertakes. Without a plan, a community is essentially in a reactive posture, and quite often, ill-prepared to seize on opportunities. During this process we have been very deliberate in identifying where our community and organization is at in this moment in time.

Challenges, opportunities, weaknesses and threats were all important considerations in the development of this plan.

During the term of the current council, there will be unforeseen circumstances and new opportunities that will arise. As a community and organization, we must be able to quickly respond to whatever comes our way. I am confident that as an organization we have the resiliency to face challenges and the flexibility to seize opportunity, all while following the blueprint that 'Incredible Community – Boundless Opportunity' provides.

I am excited by this new plan and fully commit all administrative resources necessary to facilitate its undertaking. As staff, we promise to work in a diligent and engaged manner with Mayor, Council and the entire community on all aspects of the plan.

We always ask our citizens to participate in their local government and we thank them for their input to this plan. Without the meaningful participation of volunteers on Town committees, the business of the corporation cannot be completed in the most effective fashion. We are grateful for all people and groups that care enough to provide feedback and participate in our initiatives. I also would like to thank Mayor, Council and staff for making the Town an enjoyable and enriching career experience.

Regards,

Mark McCaig
Chief Administrative Officer

Methodology

Strategic planning is an iterative process which unites public opinion with managerial expertise and executive oversight. It examines our strengths and weaknesses, opportunities and threats in the context of our changing social, technological, economic, political, and demographic environment.

Since the Town's first strategic plan in 2008, each adopted plan has built upon the previous goals of Council.

In preparation for this process, Council had the opportunity to review the strategic goals selected by previous terms of Council. The Executive Committees of Council were tasked with identifying relevant issues of strategic importance to the Town of Fort Frances. The Town reached out to stakeholder groups and corporate committees to better understand these issues, encouraged public input from our citizens, and provided an opportunity to submit written recommendations. Each initiative was thoroughly examined during a full-day planning session with Council and Administration.

The results of the strategic planning session were reviewed by management. Responsibilities and timelines were then brought forward for further Council input and approval. This document is the culmination of this exercise.

Strategic planning is of great importance to local government. The transparency of our process speaks to inclusiveness, a value we have strived for in the development of our updated strategic plan for this term of Council. These goals serve as important performance indicators for our organization.
